

A WORLD DIVIDED?

THE POLITICS OF
'GOOD' AND 'EVIL'

FREE PUBLIC SEMINAR

City Chambers, Edinburgh

21 March 2006, 7-9^{PM}

CHAIR

Rowena Arshad OBE

SPEAKER

Richard Holloway

PANEL MEMBERS

Rosemary Burnett, Sana Sadollah

WHAT ARE THE MAIN ISSUES THAT DIVIDE THE WORLD TODAY?
WHO OR WHAT DEFINES GOOD AND EVIL?
WHY DO WE FEAR DIFFERENCE?
IS PEACEFUL CO-EXISTENCE POSSIBLE?

Everyone is welcome to come along to this free public seminar and have a say. After a short presentation from our speaker, participants will get the chance to share views, ideas and experiences, followed by a discussion with the panel. Issues identified will be used as topics for future seminars.

No need to book, just turn up. If you have any specific requirements, for example sign language support, please let us know at least a week in advance.

CHAIR

Rowena Arshad OBE, Director CERES (Centre for Education for Racial Equality in Scotland)

SPEAKER

Richard Holloway, writer and broadcaster,
Chairman Scottish Arts Council

PANEL MEMBERS

Rosemary Burnett, Programme Director Scotland,
Amnesty International

Sana Sadollah, refugee advocacy worker,
human rights campaigner

TUESDAY 21 MARCH

7-9PM

CITY CHAMBERS
HIGH STREET EDINBURGH

FOR MORE INFORMATION

phone: 0131 469 3048

email: jane.meagher@educ.edin.gov.uk

Organised by

EDINBURGH'S ACTIVE
CITIZENSHIP
GROUP

