

War: A Necessary Evil?

- War – in whose name, in whose interests?
- Who should police the world – the US or the UN?
- Have we entered a period of permanent warfare?
- Protest – why bother?
- What are the alternatives to war?

This is an opportunity to hear about these and other issues from different perspectives and to share your views about world order in the future.

SPEAKERS

Richard Holloway, Writer and Broadcaster
Alastair McIntosh, Centre for Human Ecology
George Kerevan, Associate Editor, the Scotsman

CHAIR

Cllr Rev Ewan Aitken, City of Edinburgh Council

Everyone is welcome to come along to this FREE PUBLIC SEMINAR and have a say. No need to book; just turn up. If you have any specific requirements to help you take part or if you would like further information phone 469 3048 or 225 6851 or e-mail jane.meagher@educ.edin.gov.uk or niall.hermiston@civicforum.org.uk

Information stalls from 6.30pm
Speakers and discussion 7-9pm
Tuesday 10 June 2003
City Chambers, High Street

• EDINBURGH •
CITY OF EDINBURGH COUNCIL

0131 275 2000

STOP PRESS
GUEST FACILITATOR
LESLEY RIDDOCH

